Second Place at Stake

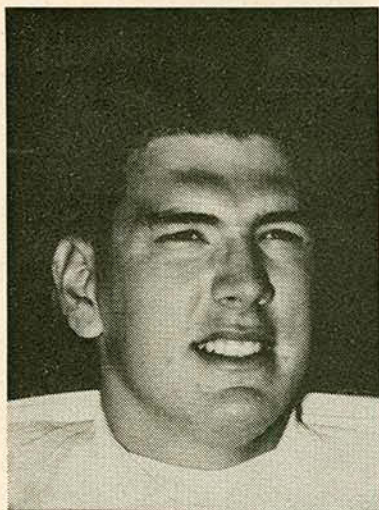

by Norris "Scooter" Hale
Sports Publicity Director

Washburn's Ichabods are a tough barrier in the path of the Fort Hays State Tigers as the Bengals have an opportunity to earn second place in the CIC by winning tonight's game.

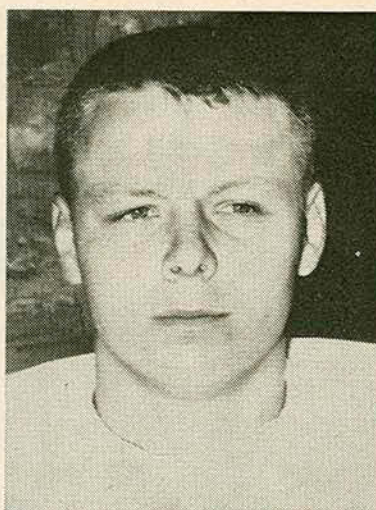

Coach Dick Godlove has been the Washburn head mentor since 1946 and the Tigers have been on the long end of the score three times in the post-World War II era. One of those three victories came in the 1957 fray at Topeka when the Bengals won a narrow 19-16 triumph.

Tiger halfback Jim Maska flipped a scoring pass to Darrell Hildebrand to produce the winning tally with 80 seconds remaining. In winning, Fort Hays overcame a 10-0 intermission deficit.

An interesting sidelight of tonight's contest is the fact that two brothers will handle the quarterbacking chores for each team. Larry Elliott is a veteran signal caller for the visiting Ichabods while younger brother, Lynn, is in his first season as quarterback for Coach Wayne McConnell's Tigers. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. William Elliott of Ulysses.

SEASON PROSPECTS

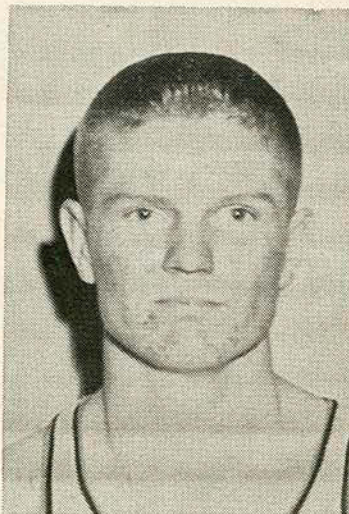

With six returning lettermen back in the fold, Coach Cade Suran is optimistic in regard to the 1958-59 basketball season. The six monogram winners that are pictured on this page are Dale Getty, 6-5 sophomore from Alma; Paul Palmer, 6-1 sophomore from Hays; Gary Casey, 6-2 senior from Hutchinson; Larry Daugherty, 6-5 sophomore from Wellington; Don Bigham, 6-3 junior from Randall; and Bill Ehlers, 6-4 senior from St. Joseph, Mo.

However, the bright spot in the Tiger cage prospects centers around several junior college transfers and some promising freshmen. A trio of transfers from Dodge City Junior College consists of Duane Channell (6-5), Merl Sturd (6-0), and Richard Whitmer (6-4). Another junior college vet is Merle Harris, who was a 6-5 forward at Hutchinson last season.

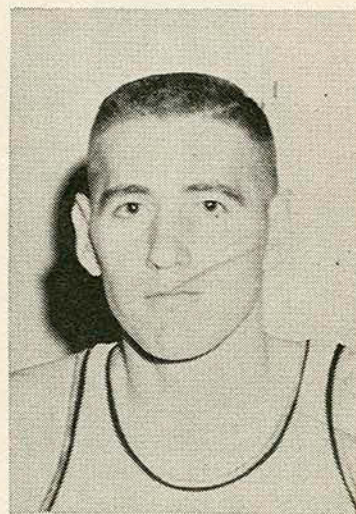

In the promising material category are Gail Harris, Ransom; Gene Schmidt, Hays; B. J. Hirt, Dorrance; Merlin Niehaus, Hill City; Wayne Schmidt, Hays; Everett Schoen, Downs; and Carl Lomax, Scott City.

Returning squad members are David Hough, J. R. O'Leary, Ronald Soeken, Lyle Wingate, and Lynn Voth.

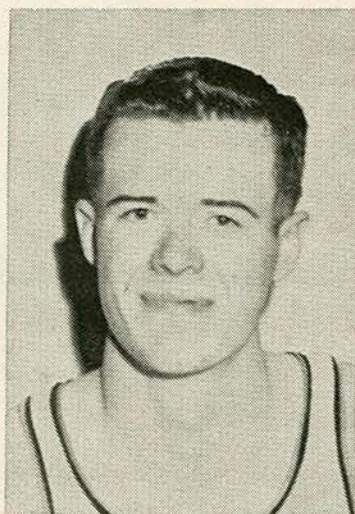

The Bengal quintet will play nine games at Sheridan Coliseum and have a similar number of games on the road plus the Great Bend invitational tourney Jan. 2-3, 1959.
